
what MATTERS
to me

The application that really matters to disabled people

Explaining one's special needs repeatedly

- Tedious
- Frustrating

Our solution

Online application:

- to describe one's needs in various situations
- to share the information easily to a service provider in different ways
- to give equality

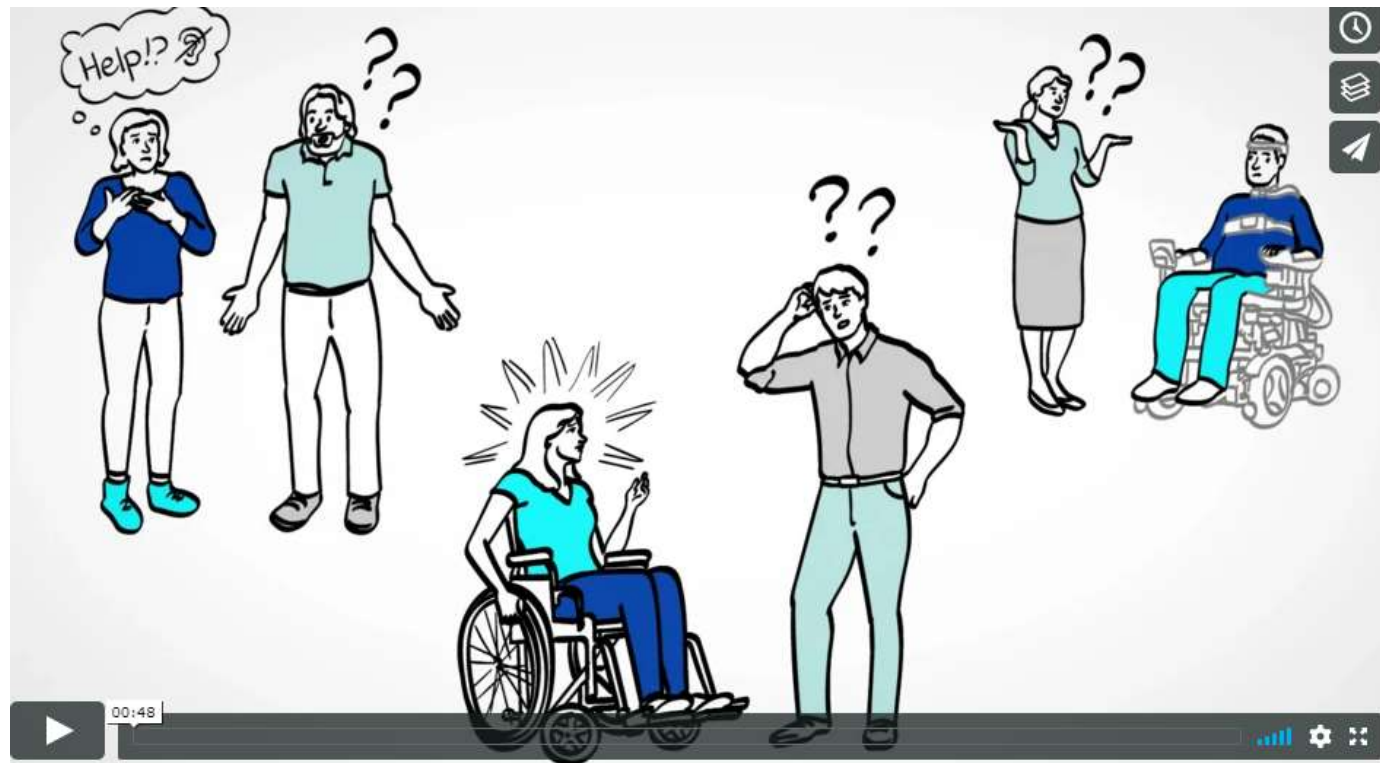

It helps

- to increase and improve the level of services received by disabled people

It helps

- to increase the understanding of service providers to make their services more barrier-free
